

Ever met a Year
Kissed her (3x), shook her hand?
Well? Did you like it?

Was she (or is it a he?)
Just the same age as you? Another Year added to each year?

Was the Year nice & bright just like you? Or older, slower, more lazy than you?

Was the Year just as happy as you with every other extra Year?

Or is each Year a thief? A thief of hair and teeth? A thief of life and love?

And suppose you were a Year and so had only a year, would you be happy with that Year?

Or would you say:
Easy come, easy go
what's another Year?

We are the Year, we are each other
We are as old as when we meet
A New Year every time we greet
